10 Sec. 2. Applicability

11 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on the effective date of 12 this act, a county, with any existing board of supervisors consisting of 13 three members, that exceeded a population of one hundred seventy-five 14 thousand persons according to the 2000 United States decennial census shall 15 begin the process of electing two additional supervisors at the next general 16 election after the effective date of this act. The board of supervisors of 17 these counties shall form five supervisorial districts within the county by 18 adopting the boundaries of the five precinct boundaries for the election of 19 community college district governing board members pursuant to section 20 15-1441, Arizona Revised Statutes. The three existing board of supervisors 21 shall represent the newly formed supervisorial districts based on their 22 residency. The remaining supervisorial districts shall be filled at the next 23 general election after the effective date of this act. The terms of the two 24 newly elected board of supervisors begin on January 1 following the general
25 election and are for a term of two years. Thereafter, the five supervisorial 26 districts shall be divided as provided by section 11-212, Arizona Revised 27 Statutes."
