

ARIZONA STATE SENATE
Fiftieth Legislature, Second Regular Session

FACT SHEET FOR H.B. 2826

consolidated election dates; political subdivisions

Purpose

Modifies statute related to consolidated election dates and political subdivisions.

Background

According to A.R.S. § 16-204, all elections, including recall elections and special elections to fill vacancies, must be held on: a) the second Tuesday in March, b) the third Tuesday in May, c) the tenth Tuesday before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, and d) the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. However, for regular elections that are only for candidates in a city or town with a population of at least 175,000, not including recall elections and special elections to fill vacancies in those cities or towns, elections must be held on: a) the tenth Tuesday before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November and b) the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

There is no anticipated fiscal impact to the state General Fund.

Provisions

1. Establishes, beginning with elections held in 2014, that an election held for or on behalf of any political subdivision of this state, other than a special election, must be held on the following dates and only in even-numbered years:
  - a) the tenth Tuesday before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November and specifies the following:
    - i. if the political subdivision holds a primary or first election and a general or runoff election is either required or optional for that political subdivision, the first election must be held on this date, without regard to whether the political subdivision designates the election a primary election, a first election, a preliminary election or any other descriptive term.
  - b) the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November and specifies the following:
    - i. if the political subdivision holds a general election or a runoff election, the second election held must be held on this date;
    - ii. if the political subdivision holds only a single election and no preliminary or primary or other election is ever held for the purpose of reducing the number of candidates, or receiving a partisan nomination or designation or for any other purpose for that political subdivision, the single election must be held on this date; and
    - iii. any ballot measure, ballot question, bond election or any other issue to be voted on by the electorate of a political subdivision and that is not an election on a candidate must also be held on this date.
