7 instrument of any kind.

8 2. "Control" or "exercise control" means to act so as to exclude 9 others from using their property except on the defendant's own terms.

11 of a check.

13 permanently or for so long a time period that a substantial portion of its 14 economic value or usefulness or enjoyment is lost, to withhold with the 15 intent to restore it only on payment of any reward or other compensation or 16 to transfer or dispose of it so that it is unlikely to be recovered.

17 5. "Draw" means making, drawing, uttering, preparing, writing or 18 delivering a check.

19 6. "Funds" means money or credit.

20 7. "Issue" means to deliver or cause to be delivered a check to a

23 deemed to have issued it if the delivery occurs.

24 8. "Material misrepresentation" means a pretense, promise, 25 representation or statement of present, past or future fact that is

5 previously has been or purports to have been drawn and issued by another, to 7 by delivery acquires a right with respect to the check.

8 12. "Property" means any thing of value, tangible or intangible, 9 including trade secrets.

10 13. "Property of another" means property in which any person other than 11 the defendant has an interest on which the defendant is not privileged to 12 infringe, including property in which the defendant also has an interest, 13 notwithstanding the fact that the other person might be precluded from civil 14 recovery because the property was used in an unlawful transaction or was 15 subject to forfeiture as contraband. Property in possession of the defendant 16 is not deemed property of another person who has only a security interest in

29 theft. Written instruments that do not have a readily ascertained market 30 value have as their value either the face amount of indebtedness less the 31 portion satisfied or the amount of economic loss involved in deprivation of 32 the instrument, whichever is greater. When property has an undeterminable

1 value the trier of fact shall determine its value and, in reaching its 2 decision, may consider all relevant evidence, including evidence of the 3 property's value to its owner.

4 B. In determining the classification of the offense, the state may 5 aggregate in the indictment or information amounts taken in thefts committed 6 pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct, whether the amounts were taken 7 from one or several persons.

31 knowingly takes control, title, use or management of a vulnerable adult's 32 property while acting in a position of trust and confidence and with the

1 intent to deprive the vulnerable adult of the property. Proof that a person
2 took control, title, use or management of a vulnerable adult's property 3 without adequate consideration to the vulnerable adult may give rise to an 4 inference that the person intended to deprive the vulnerable adult of the 5 property.

6 C. It is an affirmative defense to any prosecution under subsection B 7 of this section that either:

8 1. The property was given as a gift consistent with a pattern of gift

23 care institution that is licensed pursuant to title 36, chapter 4 and that 24 provides services to the vulnerable adult.

25 G. Theft of property or services with a value of twenty-five thousand 26 dollars or more is a class 2 felony. Theft of property or services with a

32 two thousand dollars or more but less than three thousand dollars is a class

1 5 felony. Theft of property or services with a value of one thousand dollars
2 or more but less than two thousand dollars is a class 6 felony. Theft of any 3 property or services valued at less than one thousand dollars is a class 1 4 misdemeanor, unless the property is taken from the person of another, is a 5 firearm or is an animal taken for the purpose of animal fighting in violation 6 of section 13-2910.01, in which case the theft is a class 6 felony.

9 thousand dollars or more is not eligible for suspension of sentence, 10 probation, pardon or release from confinement on any basis except pursuant to 18 1. Unless satisfactorily explained or acquired in the ordinary course 19 of business by an automotive recycler as defined and licensed pursuant to 20 title 28, chapter 10 or by a scrap metal dealer as defined in section 21 44-1641, proof of possession of scrap metal that was recently stolen may give 22 rise to an inference that the person in possession of the scrap metal was 23 aware of the risk that it had been stolen or in some way participated in its 24 theft.

25 2. Unless satisfactorily explained or sold in the ordinary course of 26 business by an automotive recycler as defined and licensed pursuant to title 27 28, chapter 10 or by a scrap metal dealer as defined in section 44-1641, 28 proof of the sale of stolen scrap metal at a price substantially below its 29 fair market value may give rise to an inference that the person selling the 30 scrap metal was aware of the risk that it had been stolen.

31 K. For the purposes of this section:

1 1. "Adequate consideration" means the property was given to the person 2 as payment for bona fide goods or services provided by the person and the
