

Bill Number: S.B. 1452

Yee Floor Amendment

Reference to: printed bill

Amendment drafted by: Jake Agron

FLOOR AMENDMENT EXPLANATION

The Yee Floor Amendment to S.B. 1452 removes all provisions of the bill except for the following:

- The bill maintains the requirement that a court determine by order whether the action is to be maintained as a class action. If the court finds that the action should be maintained as a class action, the court must give its reasons in writing and describe the evidence in support of its determination. In addition, the remaining language gives the court the authority to make specific orders related to the class. Finally, the amendment would keep the language that allows for a party to file an interlocutory appeal as a matter of right after the court's decision of whether to certify the class. In addition, the amendment states that an interlocutory appeal of a court's decision to certify or not certify a class is entitled to preference.
