

HOUSE FLOOR AMENDMENT EXPLANATION

Bill Number: HB 2663

Mesnard Floor Amendment

1. Removes the requirement that charter school budgets be posted on the school's website, but retains the posting requirements for teacher salary information.
2. Removes the requirement that SBE's procurement rules and the procurement gifting prohibition include charter schools.
3. Defines gift or benefit.
4. Establishes a delayed effective date of FY 2020 for provisions related to procurement.
5. Renames the Computer Science Program Fund to the Computer Science Professional Development Program Fund and:
  - a. Instructs grants to be distributed on a first-come first-served basis to schools that do not currently provide high school computer science instruction.
  - b. Prohibits grants that are more than 50% of the total appropriation.
  - c. Counts the value of training provided at no cost to count as matching monies.
  - d. Lowers ADE's authority to retain monies for administration from 5% to 2%.
6. Removes the requirement that SFB staff be available for review as a condition for a school district to provide a description of local funding that will be used for a proposed SFB project.
7. Removes the cancelation of noncritical SFB projects for which sufficient funding is unavailable and prohibits noncritical projects that are not funded from receiving priority in the next FY.
8. Modifies the date for SFB to approve or revise enrollment projects for new schools from March 1 to December 1.
9. Removes the Pilot Program on School Emergency Readiness.
10. Reduces the reduction to Charter Additional Assistance in FY 2023 to $0.
