20 vulnerable caregiver workshops; exemption

21 A. The sum of $250,000 is appropriated from the state general fund
22 in fiscal year 2019-2020 to the department of health services to contract 23 with a nonprofit mental health services provider to conduct workshops for 24 vulnerable parents, grandparents and caregivers of at-risk youth who are 25 struggling at home, in an out-of-home placement or in school. The 26 workshops shall be designed to enable the vulnerable parents, grandparents 27 and caregivers to build strengths, gain insight and learn new skills to 28 effectively assist the at-risk youth to reach their full potential and to 29 preserve the family.

30 B. The appropriation made in subsection A of this section is exempt 31 from the provisions of section 35-190, Arizona Revised Statutes, relating 32 to lapsing of appropriations.

1 shall reimburse the state general fund with all monies repaid by qualified
2 irrigation districts pursuant to this section."
