2 "Sec. 4. Arizona state schools for the deaf and the blind; district
3 of responsibility; exception

4 Notwithstanding title 15, chapter 11, Arizona Revised Statutes, for 5 school year 2021 the Arizona state schools for the deaf and blind shall be 6 a district of responsibility and local education agency for pupils served 7 through a campus-based model and shall be responsible for providing a free 8 and appropriate public education, awarding diplomas and submitting data for 9 federal and state accountability purposes, except that the school district 10 or charter school in which the student previously attended prior to 11 enrolling in an Arizona state schools for the deaf and blind campus-based 12 model or, if the student has moved, the school district or charter school 13 in which the student intends to attend, shall enroll a student if an 14 individualized education program determination is made that the Arizona 15 state schools for the deaf and blind is no longer the least restrictive
16 environment. If the Arizona state schools for the deaf and blind convenes a 17 meeting of a student's individualized education program team to determine a 18 student's placement status, the Arizona state schools for the deaf and 19 blind shall invite a representative of the school district or charter 20 school in which the student will next attend to participate in the 21 meeting."
