

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

SB 468 # 3

DIGEST

Uniform Commercial Code amendments. Amends the definition of "money" for purposes of Indiana's Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) to specify that money is a medium of exchange that is not in an electronic form. Removes language in the current version of the bill that defines "electronic money" for purposes of the UCC chapter governing secured transactions. Removes references to "electronic money" and "tangible money" throughout the bill. Removes language concerning the control of electronic money. Specifies that for purposes of the new UCC chapter concerning controllable electronic records, a "controllable electronic record" does not include an electronic record that is currently authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government and is not a medium of exchange that was recorded and transferable in a system that existed and operated for the medium of exchange before the medium of exchange was authorized or adopted by a government. Makes other conforming and technical amendments.
