3
4 "301.069. 1. A driveaway license plate may not be used on a vehicle used or operated on a 5 highway except for the purpose of transporting vehicles in transit. Driveaway license plates may not 6 be used by tow truck operators transporting wrecked, disabled, abandoned, improperly parked, or 7 burned vehicles. Salvage dealers, as defined in section 301.010, may issue temporary driveaway
8 license plates, to be valid for one week, for the sole purpose of transporting a vehicle to a highway
9 patrol inspection station. Driveaway license plates shall only be used by owners, corporate officers, 10 or employees of the business to which the plate was issued. For each driveaway license there shall 11 be paid an annual license fee of forty-four dollars and fifty cents for one set of plates or such insignia
12 as the director may issue which shall be attached to the motor vehicle as prescribed in this chapter.
13 Applicants may choose to obtain biennial driveaway licenses. The fee for biennial driveaway 14 licenses shall be eighty-nine dollars. For single trips the fee shall be four dollars, and descriptive 15 insignia shall be prepared and issued at the discretion of the director who shall also prescribe the type 16 of equipment used to attach such vehicles in combinations.

17 2. No driveaway license plates shall be issued by the director of revenue unless the applicant 18 therefor shall make application for such plate and shall therein include:

19 (1) The business name, business street address, and business telephone number of the 20 applicant;

21 (2) The business owner's full name, date of birth, driver's license number or nondriver's 22 license number, residence street address, and residence telephone number;

23 (3) The signature and printed name of the business owner or authorized representative of the 24 business presenting such application; and

25 (4) A statement explaining what the driveaway license plate or plates will be used for.

26 The applicant shall provide certification of proof of financial responsibility, as defined in section 27 303.020, sufficient to cover each motor vehicle the applicant shall operate or otherwise move on the 28 streets or highways, through use of the driveaway license plate, during the period of registration.

29 The applicant shall provide such certification by affixing a copy of said certification to the 30 application. The application shall include a photograph, not to exceed eight inches by ten inches but 31 no less than five inches by seven inches, showing the business building and sign of the applicant's 32 business. The applicant shall maintain a working landline telephone at the applicant's place of 1 business throughout the registration period. The applicant shall maintain certification of proof of 2 financial responsibility as described herein throughout the registration period.

3 3. If any of the information required by this section to be reported by the applicant changes 4 during the registration period, the applicant shall report said changes to the department of revenue 5 within ten days of the date of the change.

6 4. Any violation of this section or misrepresentation contained in an application for 7 driveaway license plate shall result in the revocation of the applicant's driveaway license plate and 8 any subsequent application for a driveaway license plate shall be denied for two years from the date
9 of violation. "Applicant" shall include any officer of a business or any employee or agent thereof.

10 5. Any person who knowingly uses a revoked driveaway license plate shall be deemed guilty 11 of a class A misdemeanor."; and
