1 3. If the governing body of any political subdivision adopted an ordinance that applied to the 2 2004 sales tax holiday to prohibit the provisions of this section from allowing the sales tax holiday to 3 apply to such political subdivision's local sales tax, then, notwithstanding any provision of a local 4 ordinance to the contrary, the 2005 sales tax holiday shall not apply to such political subdivision's
5 local sales tax. However, any such political subdivision may enact an ordinance to allow the 2005
6 sales tax holiday to apply to its local sales taxes. A political subdivision must notify the department
7 of revenue not less than forty-five calendar days prior to the beginning date of the sales tax holiday 8 occurring in that year of any ordinance or order rescinding an ordinance or order to opt out.

9 4. This section shall not apply to any sales which take place within the Missouri state 10 fairgrounds.

11 5. This section applies to sales of items bought for personal use only.

12 6. After the 2005 sales tax holiday, any political subdivision may, by adopting an ordinance 13 or order, choose to prohibit future annual sales tax holidays from applying to its local sales tax.
14 After opting out, the political subdivision may rescind the ordinance or order. The political 15 subdivision must notify the department of revenue not less than forty-five calendar days prior to the 16 beginning date of the sales tax holiday occurring in that year of any ordinance or order rescinding an 17 ordinance or order to opt out.

18 7. This section may not apply to any retailer when less than two percent of the retailer's
19 merchandise offered for sale qualifies for the sales tax holiday. The retailer shall offer a sales tax 20 refund in lieu of the sales tax holiday."; and
