1 hundred but fewer than ten thousand nine hundred inhabitants and located in more than one county.
 2 The commercial zone shall continue east along State Route 10 from the intersection of State Route
 3 10 and State Route 210 to the eastern city limit of a city of the fourth classification with more than 4 five hundred fifty but fewer than six hundred twenty-five inhabitants and located in any county of 5 the third classification without a township form of government and with more than twenty-three 6 thousand but fewer than twenty-six thousand inhabitants and with a city of the third classification 7 with more than five thousand but fewer than six thousand inhabitants as the county seat. The 8 commercial zone described in this subdivision shall be extended to also include the stretch of State
 9 Route 45 from its intersection with Interstate 29 extending northwest to the city limits of any village 10 with more than forty but fewer than fifty inhabitants and located in any county of the first 11 classification with more than eighty-three thousand but fewer than ninety-two thousand inhabitants 12 and with a city of the fourth classification with more than four thousand five hundred but fewer than 13 five thousand inhabitants as the county seat. The commercial zone described in this subdivision 14 shall be extended east from the intersection of State Route 7 and U.S. Highway 50 to include the 15 city limits of a city of the fourth classification with more than one thousand fifty but fewer than one 16 thousand two hundred inhabitants and located in any county with a charter form of government and 17 with more than six hundred thousand but fewer than seven hundred thousand inhabitants, and from 18 the eastern limits of said city east along U.S. Highway 50 up to and including the intersection of 19 U.S. Highway 50 and State Route AA, then south along State Route AA up to and including the 20 intersection of State Route AA and State Route 58, then west along State Route 58 to include the 21 city limits of a city of the fourth classification with more than one hundred forty but fewer than one 22 hundred sixty inhabitants and located in any county of the first classification with more than ninety-23 two thousand but fewer than one hundred one thousand inhabitants, and from the western limits of 24 said city along State Route 58 to where State Route 58 intersects with State Route 7;

25 (3) The commercial zone of a city of the third classification with more than nine thousand 26 six hundred fifty but fewer than nine thousand eight hundred inhabitants shall extend south from the 27 city limits along U.S. Highway 61 to the intersection of State Route OO in a county of the third 28 classification without a township form of government and with more than seventeen thousand eight 29 hundred but fewer than seventeen thousand nine hundred inhabitants;

30 (4) The commercial zone of a home rule city with more than one hundred eight thousand 31 but fewer than one hundred sixteen thousand inhabitants and located in a county of the first 32 classification with more than one hundred fifty thousand but fewer than two hundred thousand 33 inhabitants shall extend north from the city limits along U.S. Highway 63, a state highway, to the 34 intersection of State Route NN, and shall continue west and south along State Route NN to the 35 intersection of State Route 124, and shall extend east from the intersection along State Route 124 to 36 U.S. Highway 63. The commercial zone described in this subdivision shall also extend east from 37 the city limits along State Route WW to the intersection of State Route J and continue south on 38 State Route J for four miles.

39 4. In no case shall the commercial zone of a city be reduced due to a loss of population.
 40 The provisions of this section shall not apply to motor vehicles operating on the interstate highways
 41 in the area beyond two miles of a corporate limit of the city unless the United States Department of

1 Transportation increases the allowable weight limits on the interstate highway system within 2 commercial zones. In such case, the mileage limits established in this section shall be automatically
3 increased only in the commercial zones to conform with those authorized by the United States
4 Department of Transportation.

5 5. Nothing in this section shall prevent a city, county, or municipality, by ordinance, from 6 designating the routes over which such vehicles may be operated.

7 6. No motor vehicle engaged in interstate commerce, whether unladen or with load, whose 8 operations in the state of Missouri are limited exclusively to the commercial zone of a first class 9 home rule municipality located in a county with a population between eighty thousand and ninety-10 five thousand inhabitants which has a portion of its corporate limits contiguous with a portion of the 11 boundary between the states of Missouri and Kansas, shall have a greater weight than twenty-two 12 thousand four hundred pounds on one axle, nor shall exceed fifteen feet in height."; and
