1 2 New Paragraph; Probate Court; Change of Name. Amend RSA 547:3-i by inserting after
2 paragraph II the following new paragraph:

3 III. Before the probate court may grant a change of name pursuant to paragraph II, the initial 4 prosecuting jurisdiction shall make a reasonable effort to provide notice to the victim of the offense,
5 or the victim's next of kin if the victim has died. The victim or victim's next of kin may appear
6 personally to address the judge, or by counsel, or may provide a written statement to reasonably
7 express his or her views concerning the offense, the person responsible, and the need for denying a
8 name change. The judge may consider the statements of the victim or next of kin made pursuant to 9 this section when making a decision to grant a name change.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill increases the individuals who are subject to notice requirements and a showing of a compelling reason before he or she will be permitted to change his or her name to include those convicted of certain violent felonies or crimes against children. This bill also requires that notice be provided to the initial prosecuting jurisdiction of both the petition and the probate court's order. The bill further provides a process for providing notice to and receiving input from victims or their representatives.
