Representative Robert M. Spendlove proposes the following amendments:

1. Page 1, Line 12:

12           ▶       allows physical therapists to order the use of certain radiologic imaging.

2. Page 2, Lines 29 through 31:

29           (2) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), a physical therapist acting within the scope of the 30   physical therapist's license and experience may order ~~{radiologic}~~ imaging if the physical 31   therapist designates a radiology practitioner to receive the results of the ~~{radiologic}~~ imaging.

(b) A physical therapist may only designate a radiology practitioner under Subsection (2)(a) if the physical therapist has an agreement with the radiology practitioner in which the radiology practitioner agrees to accept responsibility for receiving the results of the imaging.

(c) A physical therapist that orders imaging under Subsection (2)(a) shall refer a patient to an appropriate provider when the findings of the imaging that was ordered by the physical therapist indicate that the services that are needed exceed the physical therapist's experience and scope of practice.
