"Section 3. That this application contains the following limits and provisions:

(a) No delegate shall have authority to vote to allow consideration of, or to approve, an unauthorized amendment for ratification to the United States constitution.

(b) Any delegate shall be directed to vote for procedures and rules mandating that the convention remain a convention of states where each state is represented by one (1) vote.

(c) Any vote made in violation of subsection (a) or (b) of this section shall be null and void, and the delegate making the vote shall be immediately recalled by an official or executive branch committee authorized by a resolution of the legislature and replaced by an alternate as provided in subsection (g) of this section.

(d) Each delegate or alternate shall be required to take the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear or affirm that to the best of my abilities I will, as a delegate or alternate to an article V convention, uphold the constitution and laws of the United States of America and Wyoming. I will not vote to allow consideration of or to approve any unauthorized amendment proposed for ratification to the United States constitution. I understand and accept any penalties that Wyoming law may impose on me for violating this oath."

(e) The secretary of state shall certify the selection of the delegates in writing to the article V convention and shall provide a copy of the certification to each delegate. No delegate shall have authority to vote or otherwise serve as a delegate at the article V convention without the certification.

(f) The secretary of state shall notify the president of the Wyoming senate and the speaker of the Wyoming house of representatives in writing of the need to assign delegates or alternates to the article V convention. The members of the senate shall elect three (3) members of the senate to serve as

1 delegates, and the members of the house of representatives shall 2 elect three (3) members of the house of representatives to serve 3 as delegates. If a delegate becomes unable or ineligible to 4 serve, the president of the senate or the speaker of the house 5 shall assign an alternate for the delegate who has become unable 6 or ineligible to serve. An alternate delegate assigned under 7 this subsection shall immediately be entitled to represent 8 Wyoming as a delegate in place of the delegate who has become 9 unable or ineligible to serve, and the secretary of state shall 10 immediately provide certification to the new delegate.
11

12 (g) The secretary of state shall notify the article V 13 convention and any delegate involved of the revocation of that 14 delegate's certification should the delegate violate his or her 15 oath to act only within the limits of the authority granted by 16 the state of Wyoming.
17

18 (h) The Wyoming attorney general shall enforce applicable 19 Wyoming statutes and any associated penalties for violation of 20 these conditions. A Wyoming citizen may also file an action to 21 enforce the requirements of this chapter and shall be entitled 22 to reasonable attorney's fees if successful.
23

24 (j) As used in this resolution: 25

26 (i) "Article V application" means a joint resolution 27 passed by the Wyoming legislature on the same subject or 28 containing the same proposed amendment text as two-thirds (2/3) 29 of the other states requiring the United States congress to call 30 an article V convention; 31

32 (ii) "Article V convention" means a convention for 33 proposing amendments as expressly provided in article V of the 34 United States constitution; 35

36 (iii) "Delegate" or "alternate" means a legislator 37 selected under subsection (g) of this section to represent the 38 state of Wyoming at an article V convention; 39

40 (iv) "Legislative instructions" means instructions 41 given by the state legislature to delegates and alternates 42 before and during an article V convention; 43

44 (v) "Unauthorized amendment" means a proposed 45 amendment that is outside the permitted subject matter contained 46 in this article V application or contrary to legislative 47 instructions.".
