"(n) Permit holders under this article shall have an ongoing obligation to disclose in writing any material change in the information provided in the application to the commission, including:

(i) Changes to names and contact information;

(ii) Arrests, convictions, guilty pleas, disciplinary actions or license denials in Wyoming or any other jurisdiction;

(iii) Any civil action brought against the permit holder; and

(iv) Any other information specified by rule of the commission.

(o) If the commission denies an application or intends to revoke or suspend a permit issued under this article, it shall notify the applicant or permittee in writing, stating the grounds for denial, revocation or suspension and informing the person of a right to submit, within not more than thirty (30) days, any additional documentation relating to the grounds for denial, revocation or suspension. Upon receiving any additional documentation, the commission shall reconsider its decision and inform the applicant of its decision within not more than twenty (20) days of the submission of information for reconsideration. A denial of an application or a revocation or suspension of a permit under this article shall be subject to the contested case procedures of the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act.".
